

ARTICLE C3.1 MEMBERSHIP

- C3.1.1 The corporate membership shall consist of Honorary Members, Fellows, Members and Financial Affiliate Members. The non-corporate membership shall consist of Affiliates (other than Financial Affiliates) and Student Members.
- C3.1.2 Members of Honorary grade shall be elected by the Board of Governors. The election for all other grades of membership may be delegated by the Board of Governors.
- C3.1.3 An Honorary Member shall be a person having distinctive accomplishment in engineering or science or industry or research or public service and those allied pursuits beneficial to the engineering profession.
- C3.1.4 A Fellow, one who has attained a membership grade of distinction, at the time of advancement shall be a corporate member of the Society, shall have been responsible for significant engineering achievements, shall have not less than 10 years of active practice and shall have not less than 10 years of corporate membership.
- C3.1.5 A Member, at the time of admission or advancement to that grade, shall have attainments amounting to the equivalent of at least eight years of engineering experience.
- C3.1.6 An Affiliate Member is a person who is capable of and interested in rendering service to the field of engineering but who does not need to have an engineering degree. An Affiliate Member's work should be so related to applications of engineering that admission to this grade will contribute to the welfare of the Society. A Financial Affiliate Member, a subset of the Affiliate Membership, is someone who has financial background, training and/or experience. Financial Affiliate Members shall have the same rights and duties as a Corporate Member, including the ability to serve on the Board of Governors as a full voting member.
- C3.1.7 A Student Member shall be a student regularly enrolled and working towards a degree in an approved engineering curriculum, or towards an engineering degree in a regionally accredited institution.
- C3.1.8 Personal or professional achievement of members, within the Society and/or their professions, may be designated by appropriate titles or descriptive words.
